Dear Sponsor:

The Chitimacha Tribe of Louisiana is an Indian tribal government that is treated as a State pursuant to Section 7871 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("IRC"). As such, it is a "governmental unit" as defined in IRC Sections 170(b)(1)(A)(v) and 170(c)(1), and is not a private foundation by virtue of IRC Section 509(a)(1).

Indian tribal governments are not required to have a tax exemption determination letter under IRC Section 501©(3). Therefore, this letter is being furnished to you in lieu of a federal tax exemption determination letter. Accordingly, it is the Tribe's view that your grant constitutes a charitable contribution under the IRC.

This will confirm our assurance and agreement that any funds that you may choose to give to The Chitimacha Tribe of Louisiana will be used for exclusively public purposes within the meaning of IRC Section 170(c)(1).

Sincerely,

O'Neil J. Darden, Jr.
Chairman
